

Don Scott

Don Scott found an early interest in the grocery industry in Muncie, Indiana and pursued his dream as he purchased his first store in 1954. In 1962, a third purchase and a new partnership with Bill Rietz set the stage for great growth under the Scott's name. In 1991, SuperValu Stores purchased the company consisting of 13 stores in the Fort Wayne area. In 1996, Scott's sales were near the $400 million mark.
